State of Grace

In the court of a King, like Jesus, when you are recognized to speak, the king acknowledges you by stretching out a scepter to you...

As when Esther was recognized in the court of the king, she brought her petition. Her request was granted. She was then in a State of Grace, having been heard and her request granted.

By recognizing Esther and granting her petition, the king was then under obligation to fulfill his word 'till all was completed.

As was the case with Esther, there were multiple steps the king obligated himself to fulfill in our lives.

Our case has been heard. Our petition of pardon has been granted. We are free of the damning sentence of death for sin.

God has obligated Himself to accept our status of Righteous by virtue of the presented evidence.

God accepted Jesus' Blood as payment for the sins of the world. That payment has been accepted as applied to you.

Because we have accepted Jesus as our Savior, favor has been granted us in the Court of Heaven.

We now live in a State of Grace. At the favor of the King all necessary Grace has been granted to pay the obligations of the Covenant.

"This is the New Covenant in My Blood," Jesus said. Everything in the Covenant is now yours. We are living in a State of Grace.

Challenge Reminder:

Read five chapters in the Word and pray in tongues for 30 minutes.

"Likewise the Spirit also helps our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit HIMSELF makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. Now He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God." -Rom. 8:26-27
