“Oooppss!”

“Oooppss!” is the thing you say when you know you have missed God...made a mistake... committed sin...but recognize you must go on.

“Oooppss...” moments have happened to all of us. God even had to deal with it, in the Old Covenant. God personally had not sinned, but He had to deal with man’s sin, shortcomings, failures, etc.

Sometimes, we simply Blow It...but if we want to get past it, we must turn to God.

There are certain “sure fired, well-placed” remedies for our failure in the New Testament.

Restoration can be certain, but it does require certain things from us.

The Old Testament was written for us. The New Testament was written to us.

Technically, the Old Testament was completed at Calvary. When Jesus said, “It is finished”, His statement pertained to a number of things “working” in the Old Covenant.

Our relationship with Him now can only be based on the New Covenant. Jesus paid the price for the sins of mankind, and He is Resurrected! Period.

Now, when we “Blow It”, we must turn to Jesus!

Challenge Reminder:

Read five chapters in the Word and pray in tongues for 30 minutes.

"Likewise the Spirit also helps our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit HIMSELF makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. Now He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God." -Rom. 8:26-27
