“The Great Escape”

Years ago, there was a movie produced by Hollywood called The Great Escape.

It was about a group of soldiers planning an escape from a World War II prison camp.

Steve McQueen was the main character, and he escaped with others from the camp.

But, they were recaptured, and returned to their barracks.

It was a sad story.

Also, in foreign countries while preaching on the mission field, we have had to run for our lives.

It seems that the Devil was also seeking to capture us in his traps.

The Apostle Peter said that we should not consider it strange to be pursued by our enemies.

We live in perilous times, spoken of by Apostle Paul.

Peter reminded us that Satan has already been defeated, but he still walks around as a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour.

I have personally decided to not be captured by a toothless lion.

King David told of his encounters with lions and bears.

He was repeatedly delivered from Satan's grasp.

The Great Escape was accomplished for us at Calvary.

Let us stay free from a defeated foe!

Now He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God." -Rom. 8:26-27
